

Date Night Fun in 2017

What have you and your spouse never done that seems like it would be fun?

Quick! List three things you've dreamt about, but have never done...

1. _____

2. _____

3. _____

Who do you know that's done these three things?

What resources do you need to do these three things? Make a list - including links.

Make a budget. Decide how much you'll need to save to make this happen, and find a big container to create a "save for.." bank. Set it in a prominent spot in your home.
